Is Greg Frankson a motivational speaker?

During his fifteen years of experience as a community activist, student leader, teacher, spoken word artist and writer, Greg Frankson has gained a variety of perspectives on a wide range of topics. Cytopoetics uses this knowledge base to create presentations that teach, motivate and inspire people to achieve change in their lives and communities.

Through speeches (often liberally sprinkled with spoken word performance), Greg is working to fulfill one of the mottoes guiding the work of Cytopoetics – presenting the vision that inspires others to positively change the world.

What does Greg usually talk about in his speeches?

The speeches we deliver cover many different topics, including (but not exclusive to):

- Anti-racism, anti-discrimination, diversity and multiculturalism
- The situation of Blacks in Canada
- Motivational leadership
- The need for a strong post-secondary education system in Canada
- Issues related to social change and equality

What else can you get from Cytopoetics?

We also offer the following to business, education and the community:

- Spoken word performances and poetry writing workshops
- Poet-in-Residence (where Greg Frankson will write poems about your event as it happens)
- Poetic Rapportage (your artistically created record of proceedings)
- Facilitation, workshop leadership and/or emcee services

Where else has Cytopoetics provided creative services?

Previous regional, national and international clients include: the Ottawa Police Service, the Ontario Federation of Labour, the Canadian Conference for the Arts, and the International Initiative for Mental Health Leadership. Greg has delivered speeches to the Ontario Student Leadership Conference, the graduating class at Mother Teresa C.S.S. (Scarborough), at Queen's University, and at the National Library and Archives, among others.
